

"I AM PROUD OF JOHN A. COULTHURST," DECLARES PASTOR, FATHER CUMMINS

ROSLINDALE PRIEST LAUDS HIM FOR SINCERITY AND SPLENDID CHARACTER.

Declaring that he is "proud of John A. Coulthurst in every way that a parish priest should be proud of one of his people," the Rev. John F. Cummins, pastor of the Church of the Sacred Heart of Roslindale, yesterday added his meed of praise to the other tributes that have been paid to the Independence League Non-Partisan candidate for Mayor.

Following so closely upon the declaration of the Rev. Herbert S. Johnson, pastor of the Warren Avenue Baptist Church, that he regards Mr. Coulthurst as a "young man of excellent ability and exemplary character, who fulfills all the necessary conditions," the praise of Mr. Coulthurst's pastor is regarded as particularly significant and timely.

"I am truly proud of this young man," Father Cummins said, "proud of him for his honest sincerity and splendid character. I regard him as a man of splendid character and absolute integrity."

The Rev. John F. Cummins is one of the best known and most popular rectors in all the archdiocese of Boston. He is the ideal cure, beloved by all who come within the scope of his fatherly influence.

BUILT UP ROSLINDALE PARISH.

Father Cummins, who has been pastor at Plymouth and Hopkinton and a curate in several other places before coming to Roslindale, long since celebrated the silver jubilee which marked his twenty-fifth year in the sacred priesthood. When he first came to Roslindale, back in the Summer of '72, the Catholics of that district were still worshipping in a tent that had been in use since the previous Christmas. A splendid church was erected within a few years, and the "Father Cummins baroque," with which the gentle but energetic priest raised funds for his parish work, were long an annual entertainment looked forward to with keen delight by the Catholics of Greater Boston.

Father Cummins did not "come out" yesterday for John A. Coulthurst in the ordinary acceptance of a well-known and over-worked political phrase. His tribute to the League Non-Partisan candidate came about in exactly the following manner:

Father Cummins was asked this question:

"Would you be willing to give out a letter, Father, containing your full views of John A. Coulthurst, candidate for Mayor of Boston?" and he replied without hesitation:

"Our ecclesiastical superiors," said Father Cummins, "do not consider it becoming in a priest to take an active interest in politics. However, that does not prevent me from answering any question you may ask about the reputation here of my esteemed parishioner, John A. Coulthurst."

"TRULY PROUD OF HIM."

"I am truly proud of this young man. Proud of him for his honest sincerity and splendid character."

"I have known Mr. Coulthurst from boyhood and have watched him grow. I have watched his progress and his studies, and I was very proud when he came home from Georgetown University with his master's degree."

"This distinction was conferred upon him after a most brilliant post-graduate course."

"I am proud of Mr. Coulthurst in every way that a parish priest should be proud of one of his people. I regard him as a man of splendid capacity and character, and of absolute integrity, and I am prouder still to know that he has been regarded as a man of majoritary size."

"He has been very efficient here in Roslindale in parish work, and he has been most successful in his labors in behalf of this district, and as the head of a large committee for more favorable railroad legislation for the district he distinguished himself with the people so well that he was easily marked as a leader in our midst."

"Mr. Coulthurst is a law-abiding to-day of good standing and comes from a very good family."

Interest in Mr. Coulthurst's candidacy is keen all through the Roslindale district. It is agreed in all the political camps that Mr. Coulthurst will come out of his home ward with a handsome majority.

Go Coulthurst's pastor describing laudable work of candidate says:

"He has been very efficient here in Roslindale in parish work, and he has been most successful in his labors in behalf of this district. He distinguished himself with the people."

REV. JOHN F. CUMMINS

"I am proud of Mr. Coulthurst in every way that a parish priest should be proud of one of his people. I regard him as a man of splendid capacity and character, and of absolute integrity. I am prouder still to know he is a man of majoritary size."

WHO'S MICHAEL C. O'NEILL, WHO SPOKE FOR COULTHURST AT GREAT RALLY?

Although widely known to business men in New England, and one of the most successful insurance men in New England, many persons have since appeared at the Tremont Temple rally on Saturday evening, made inquiries as to the identity of Michael C. O'Neill.

Mr. O'Neill was born in the city of Dublin in 1863, under the shadow of the spot where Robert Emmet was executed. He was educated in the Christian Brothers' schools of Dublin. Naturally, at the age of fifteen he was a member of the Irish revolution, which had for its aim the freedom of Ireland.

A few weeks before he reached the age of eighteen he left for the United States. In his care was Corporal Thomas Chambers, who suffered for four years in Dartmoor Prison, England. With Chambers had been incarcerated Michael Davitt, MacCarthy and O'Brien. MacCarthy died a few days after he was released, and Chambers was at the point of death when he started to this country in charge of Mrs. O'Neill.

When the invalid and his youthful companion reached Boston the first hard to welcome them was that of John Boyle O'Reilly.

Since then Mr. O'Neill has lived in several cities in the United States, having made his home in Boston for the past seven years. He is a member of the Elks and of several Irish organizations.

Mr. O'Neill does not have taken an active part in politics. He has been so completely successful, however, in the insurance business that he is a member of the famous "Two Hundred Thousand Dollar Club" of the New York Life. Only men who have personally written this amount of insurance are eligible to this organization.

Mr. O'Neill declares that he has no political axe to grind, but he believes that the honor of Boston urgently demands that Mr. Fitzgerald, for his betrayal of the people's trust, be replaced with a man of whom the citizens can be proud and whose name is fit to be enrolled by the side of those of Collins, O'Reilly and O'Brien.

A Word of Advice to Salesgirls

By Beatrice Fairfax
DURING the coming weeks, the young women employed as saleswomen will need all the patience and tact their command. And these words are written for their special benefit.

Make up your minds, dear, that for these weeks there must be a great deal of work and very little play. You will need all your strength if you intend to do your work satisfactorily, and if you are good saleswomen your main thought will be to do the best you can. In the first place, get all the sleep you can. Go to bed early. A warm bath before you go to bed will rest you wonderfully, but you must not take it after two hours after retiring.

If your feet ache, put about half a pound of baking soda in the water. That will drive away the pain like magic.

Return Good for Evil!
TRY your very best to be perfect and successful with your customers. You will have many tired, peevish women to deal with, but be as courteous as you can. If you are civil and obliging, they will be ashamed of their rudeness.

You should give up all idea of salary of any kind as long as you are so busy attending to the work you are paid to do. You cannot make all night and work all day.

By Christmas day most of you will be tired out, but there are many ways in which you can ease yourself if you have it in your power. Do not stand in line in good condition when you have hard work to do, for it is much easier to contract illness of any kind when you are worn out than when you are fresh.

Duty to Employer
REMEMBER that you owe a duty to your employer. He expects you to be interested in your work, to do the best you can, both by him and the customer. A good saleswoman is invaluable.

She is always interested in her work, and obliging. The girl who looks as though it were a bother to serve you, and takes down the warmest arguments, but few sales.

I know certain girls who are so obliging that I would wait half an hour to have them serve me.

Just make up your minds to be salesmen and nothing but the best for a few weeks. Keep yourselves in good condition and you will find it much easier to be good-natured and interested in your work.

You may be tired when the rush is over, but you will have the great satisfaction of having done your work to the best of your ability.

Handy Things for Housewives to Know
THE best way to place a value on a brass or iron bed is to keep it in good condition. It is the new value to a piece of furniture.

To Sprinkle Clothes
By turning the golden hose to a fine spray and using it on your clothes when they are wet on the line saves one handling.

ADVICE TO THE LOVELORN
By Beatrice Fairfax
TROUBLES OF COURTSHIP
DEAR MISS FAIRFAX: I am a young man living in the city and am situated to do a good deal of work in the country, which I can do only once a week. I have a very nice home with a garden, and I am very fond of my work.

Be Easy With the Poor Man

BY WINIFRED BLACK

"WINIFRED, my husband tells me how much better I am than he is and how little he deserves the love of such a woman as I am. He is a poor man, but he is a good man. I begin to look around to see what he has been up to that he wants me to forgive."

"I am not at all surprised," said the woman who was sitting next to her. "Why, of course not," said the woman who was sitting next to her. "Why, of course not," said the woman who was sitting next to her.

TOMMY BURNS SMALLEST FIGHTER TO EVER HOLD HEAVY WEIGHT TITLE

HOW TOMMY BURNS SIZES UP.

Tommy Burns is the most remarkable champion of the world pugilism has ever known. Standing 5 feet 7 inches in his socks, but three-quarters of an inch taller than Joe Gans, the lightweight champion, and weighing little more than 150 pounds, Burns has fought his way to the top of his class with what might be called ease. Of course, the heavyweight division is not composed of giants now, as it was a few years back, when Alvin Karpis, who fought with him, was 6 feet 10 inches tall, but the men Burns has fought were big enough and brawny enough to make his success a feat. The other champions of the new division are shown in the above photo diagram more plainly than they can be described in cold type.

First Serious Spill.

As a result of this young heavyweight for whom there have been half a dozen fights, the most serious of which was a 15-round affair with Alvin Karpis, who was the Madison Avenue champion, Burns was left with a broken nose and a badly bruised head. The fight was a real one, and the result was a real one. Burns was left with a broken nose and a badly bruised head. The fight was a real one, and the result was a real one.

Cheers for Waltham.

For a time it was rumored that Waltham was also out of the race, but his trainers and the doctor had worked over him for an hour and he had shaken off his injuries. He was then allowed to fight the next day, and he won. He was then allowed to fight the next day, and he won.

Fast Pace.

The pace was so fast that each man was relieved after a few minutes. Waltham took no chances, and he was the first to clinch and clinched on his own. He was the first to clinch and clinched on his own.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—There's a rumor in local baseball circles that Fred Tenney of the Braves will figure in a deal this week with the Yankees. Motives are stated to go and the deal player would be in with Tenney.

Roger Bresnan is not satisfied with the present berth and wants to use it in the future or he will go to the Cubs. President Davis and Tenney, who are reported today, intend to discuss the question.

Beginning tomorrow the baseball season will have its first day of the season. The season will have its first day of the season. The season will have its first day of the season.

Not Like Old Times.

Then again the great crowd of players, spectators and others interested in the sport, who have annually attended the meeting, may find a little strange in this atmosphere of war.
